Message from Vice Chancellor

The School of Pharmaceutical Sciences (previously University Institute of Pharmacy), Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University Campus, Kanpur, was founded in 2004 with the goal of providing pharmacy education and research. The School has been at the forefront of providing education in a highly professional atmosphere that adheres to worldwide standards and sets industry benchmarks since its founding. It has an illustrious 20 years history and continues to grow as Uttar Pradesh's most prestigious and preferred pharmacy school.

Pharmaceutical Sciences programmes include B.Pharm., D. Pharm., M. Pharm. (Pharmaceutics, Pharmacology, and Pharmaceutical Chemistry), and Ph.D.

It has been consistently delivering state-of-the-art infrastructure and amenities to develop quality Pharmacy professionals, with the devoted, competent instructors and well-equipped lab facilities. The Department is equipped and committed to excel in pharmaceutical education and research, as well as well cognizant of the problems that the future knowledge age will bring. All stakeholders must play a critical part in strengthening the nation's knowledge economy and empowering the inspired youth who enter Pharmacy education and research with the power of knowledge, creativity, and talents developed thus in this century of brains.

I hope that the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences will develop and flourish into the country's leading pharmacy school. I hope that the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences would strive to raise educational standards to international levels by creating a more suitable environment for teaching, learning, and total personality development of students. I will continue to offer my full support to all faculty, staff, and students in their future endeavors.

Prof. Vinay Kumar Pathak
Vice-Chancellor, CSJMU, Kanpur
