CSJMU organises special session on yoga

PRIMER NEWS SERVICE ■ KANPUR

Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University (CSJMU) organised a special session on yoga on Friday as part of the International Yoga Day in association with the Department of Physical Education and School of Health Sciences. The session was held as per the theme for this day 'Yoga for Humanity'. A memorandum of understanding (MoU) was signed between CSJMU and Moksha International to promote yoga.

The chief guest, Padmashri Swami Bharat Bhushan, addressing the session expressed his happiness and appreciation for CSJMU and said that excellent teachers were never satisfied with what they already knew and were constantly seeking knowledge. He informed that the world's first university was founded in India and the term 'guru' originally referred to a yogi. He asserted that the ability to develop exceptional personalities lay with the instructor. He responded to inquiries from students on Yoga after his address. Prof Vinay Kumar Pathak, Vice-Chancellor of CSJMU and chairman of this programme, expressed his joy and said that yoga was an age-old practice that had its roots in Indian philosophy. He said although it started as a spiritual practice it had gained popularity in spreading physical and mental well-being. He said that the variety would develop new yoga asanas to encourage individuals to practice yoga. Ayurvedacharya, Dr Vandana Pathak, who was the special guest said that yoga kept the body and mind healthy and made the routine good. 'Yoga should be practiced regularly by everyone

Students from 13 colleges and institutions participated in the yoga asana sports competition.

Pro Vice-Chancellor Prof Sudheer Kumar Awasthi who was special guest and introduced Swami Bharat Bhushan and said that Swami was the founder and chairman of Moksha International Yogadharma, Sahasranga. He said Swami had developed a triangle-based approach to physical growth based on the Satvik diet, yoga and asana exercises.

In the female category the winners Bhumi, Anuradha, Shradha, Shobhi, Manvi, Iyoti, Rajal, Ranjani, Kamal, Pritika and in the male category, the winners Gaurav, Adarsh, Prakash, Yogesh, Anurag, Varun, Rishi and Ravi were awarded with medals and mementos by Swami. Prof Sudheer Kumar Pathak, Dr Ashish Kumar Dwivedi, Dr Ravi Kumar (programme coordinator) and Dr Digvijay Sharma were also present in the programme. The students of the Moksha department greeted the guests warmly and presented Swami Vandana.

as regular practice enhanced cognitive, spiritual and physical abilities. We said though one may hope for a guru to guide through yoga's deep practices, many students require refining, more than a skilled yoga teacher. He said it is essential to learn yoga under a yoga guru who can perform and teach its ideologies as well.
