16.Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary
From this year it is compulsory for the master level students to undertake one optional subject from the other faculty, as directed by the UP government. Syllabi of every subject, in the university, are revised in this context which is also available online for perusal.
17.Academic bank of credits (ABC):
University has directed all the faculty members and students to register on the ABACUS UP platform. The process includes filling in the information on the portal at the individual level. We expect to finish the process by the year-end of 2022-23. To remove the confusion regarding subject codes all the same are revised to match the format as provided by the UP government. Each of these codes is part of the syllabi which is also available online for your perusal.
18.Skill development:
Skill development through in-hand training is encouraged at CSJMU. We have categorized all courses for their content of the in-hand training, these are part of the syllabus as Research, internship, training, research project, and viva-voce or report writing. All the skill development or practical portions of the curriculum can be found in the syllabus uploaded on the website. University is in MoUs with 59 organizations for facilitating skill development amongst the students. All the MoUs are available online for your perusal.
19.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)
The committee on IKS is planning to make subject changes in all the running courses. They have also designated members to supervise the transition.
20.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):
OBE is an educational approach, that focuses on organizing the entire academic program (curriculum) and clearly defined 'outcomes' It is a student-centered instruction model that focuses on measuring student performances through outcomes. All the programs and courses of the university framed program objectives, course objectives, and course-specific objectives. A template has been developed to measure PO attainment and CO attainment.

21.Distance education/online education:

The students are directed to attain credits through the MOOCS in their respective courses.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which is reflected in Programme outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes(PSOs) and Course Outcomes(COs) of the Programmes offered by the University

- The University offers 86 degree programmes, 13 diploma programmes (including 6 PG diplomas), and 9 certificate programmes in a variety of fields/subjects. Since then, these programmes have been actively thriving in tandem with the changing and challenging demands of academia and industry at the local, regional, national, and global levels.
- All of the university's programmes not only expose students to numerous job opportunities, but also provide them with a high level of technical and managerial expertise to analyse, design, and propose viable solutions to problems, achieve excellence, and demonstrate exceptional leadership qualities.
- The curricula prepared them to compete in and excel at a variety of national and international competitive, fellowship, and scholarship examinations.
- Professional skills, core competency, effective oral and written communication skills, aptitude for insightful thinking, scientific temper, research skills, digital literacy, decision-making ability, and moral and ethical awareness have all been instilled in the students.
- To enhance students' understanding of industry expectations, improve employability skills, develop inter-disciplinary skills, humanitarian skills, and bridge skill gaps to make students industry ready, 119 value-added courses have been offered by various schools.
- These programmes have provided students with the necessary expertise and knowledge to design, incorporate, and implement policies aimed at overcoming challenges to the global community's well-being through effective eco-friendly social service and consultancy delivery mechanisms.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

- Since its inception, CSJM University has strived to keep up with global issues and debates, while also emphasising the importance of educating its students on issues of human rights, values, and liberty.
- By definition, the institution promotes larger societal and philosophical concerns, with critical thinking that seeks to mirror contemporary human conditions and, more often than not, offers a humanistic solution.
- In line with these sentiments, all of the university's programmes aim to enlighten young minds. These relevant programmes expose students to globally relevant issues such as gross violations of humanitarian values inflicted on individuals who are victimised because of their class, caste, gender, sexual orientation, and so on.
- The university spares no effort in fostering the professional ideals that will guide a student's behaviour once they enter the working world.
- The organisation supports and encourages a number of projects and measures aimed at integrating environmental sustainability, including the establishment of recycling programmes, energy conservation in office buildings, promoting paperless offices, purchasing plants, repurposing objects, etc. As a result, the University has both directly and indirectly incorporated topics related to professional ethics, gender, human values, the environment, and sustainability into the curriculum.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organises special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

University organizes an Orientation Programme mandatory for all newly admitted students on campus and believes in outcome-based learning process, where students are identified as advanced learners and slow learners on the basis of the litmus test, class interaction and academic performances. University employs an extensive range of continuous assessment modules that comprise Assignments, Group Discussions, Quizzes, Class-Tests, Mid-term Exams, Projects, Internships, Viva-voce examinations and attendance for an effectual appraisal of learning levels of students.

Advanced learners are given opportunities to be part of innovative projects and other prolific enterprises of the university. They are appointed as Class Representatives and also chosen as office bearers of students' council and other professional cells or bodies to make them grow in the domain of leadership & team building skills. They are encouraged to participate in various events at University and National Levels, so that they learn to maintain a perfect balance between academics and extra & co-curricular activities. University rank holders are awarded with certificates and medals in the Convocation Ceremony. For relatively slow learners, several kinds of support are provided through a mentor-mentee system. The mentor identifies both strengths and weaknesses in the students and motivates them to hone their skills in order to build within them self-confidence. Departments conduct tutorials and remedial classes, which leads to a consistent improvement in academic performance. They are provided with all emotional and professional counselling whenever necessary. To deal with advanced and slow learners, University has developed a mechanism, uploaded as supporting document.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Participative Learning:

The University aspires to boost the learning experience of students in class through various interactive and participatory activities that aid in creating a feeling of responsibility in students and make learning an engaging process. For escalating educational experiences the faculty members adopt traditional methods like delivering lectures, blackboard presentation and interactive teaching, projects, field work, experiments and ICT methods. Group Learning method has been adopted through Whatsapp group and Google classroom. Assignments stimulate students' interest in the subject by allowing them freedom of thoughts and free exchange of different ideas.

Experiential learning:

The University encourages students to pursue studies with a practical approach through project development, seminars, workshops, industrial and academic visits, internships, presentations, experimental/laboratory methods, and other endeavours like Village Adoption, NSS and NCC activities, Yoga, Sports activities, Tree plantation drives, Swachh Bharat Campaign, Blood Donation and Health awareness camps to accustom the students with the facts through first-hand experience individually.

Problem solving methodologies:

Students are acquainted with various problem-solving methodologies through giving them exposure to the existing set of problems, opportunity to design problems and undergo case studies, and involving them in problem-solving activities. Student's participation in debates, quizzes, research activities and workshops both at individual and group levels under the supervision of teachers are encouraged and conducted to augment students' logical reasoning, practical knowledge, research aptitude and problem solving abilities.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning processes during the year

The University unconditionally decided to adopt online mode of teaching for the benefit of students. Also, observing the necessity of learning cutting-edge technologies for students in order to be industry- ready, teachers started expending online pedagogic resources, internet forums, You-Tube, E- mails, WhatsApp group, Zoom, Gyan-Sanchay Portal (A Content Management System), google-classroom and google-meet to execute teaching expeditiously. The use of MOOC platforms and Digital Library resources are encouraged and practised by many faculty members to augment teaching- learning activity.

All the departments remain facilitated with LCD projectors, which serve the purposes of screening instructive movies, documentaries and making power point presentations. Students have been thoroughly habituated with technology based learning as an essential component/aspect/feature especially after considering various factors related to pandemic and post-pandemic period. Faculties have prepared online quiz for students with the help of GOOGLE FORMS. Students have been counselled and tutored through Zoom / Google meet applications.

Teachers prepared lectures on significant topics which were developed and recorded in the form of VidyaVaani Lectures by the Media Centre and were made obtainable for students. ICT empowered teaching not only has started enabling students to comply with the modern virtual and cybernetic world but also has helped the University build a student- compatible learning process. The entire campus has been well equipped with Internet and Wi-Fi facility along with high-tech Xerox machines at prominent places, and desktops at computer labs and faculty cabins for the convenience of both students and teachers.

2.5.3 - IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes (continuous internal assessment and end-semester assessment) have brought in considerable improvement in examination management system of the institution

A well-organized and proficient Examination management system already existed in the University. The Controller of Examination in collaboration with faculty members and officers of the examination cell administered and monitored with responsibility all processes related to Pre-Examinations, conducting of examinations, declaration of results and award of degrees. The significant reforms which phenomenally effected the Examination Management System of the Institution are as follows:

1. The University had inducted and promoted IT tools-aided examination methods like filling up examination form online, approval process, online admit card generation, exam scheme publication, internal marks uploading and publication of result for smooth holding of examinations in future.

2. CCTV Surveillance System was installed in the vicinity of the examination hall and inside to restrict the entry of unauthorized persons and to check unpleasant incidents of malpractice.

3. Encoding and decoding of answer booklets to ensure confidentiality apart from equitable and uniform evaluation was continuously monitored and maintained.

4. Online declaration of results within the stipulated time was ensured.

5. Personal verification system has been started for recording student presence and absence.

6. The University has created a complete faceless online eco-system for students so that they can avail students' services easily. They are as follows: Online Degree, Online Marksheet, Online Migration and Provisional Certificates, Online Transcripts

7. The University has taken initiatives in the direction of Digital Evaluation.

8. For handling students' grievances, the University has established a call centre to resolve their queries and problems.

9. Digi-locker Account has been implemented for students regarding their marksheets/ certificates/degrees

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - The institution has stated learning outcomes (generic and programme specific)/graduate attributes which are integrated into the assessment process and widely publicized through the website and other documents

CSJM University has showcased all its programmes and curricula incorporated with POs, PSOs, COs and learning outcomes/graduate attributes through its website and can be accessed by all stakeholders. Each Department displays on its webpage, the programmes offered, programme objectives, course structure and the syllabus. The syllabus clearly projects course objectives and course outcomes. Learning outcomes are stated using Blooms Taxonomy. The revision of syllabus and the amalgamation of new subjects in consonance with the contemporary business demands suggest how CSJMU has been prioritizing discipline knowledge as paramount element in learning outcomes and graduate attributes. The PSOs and COs are finalized after exhaustive discussions with external experts in the Board of Studies and approval by the Academic Council. Cumulative assessment is done at the end of academic year. University adopts the method of conducting annual/end semester examination both in theory and practical covering the entire syllabus. Examination-results determine the academic performance of the students and the extent of outcomes that have been achieved. Attainment analysis is determined on the basis of data obtained from the above modules, and results are used for improvement through teaching techniques, assessment methods and amendment of curriculum in order to provide quality assurance to all stakeholders.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes, Programme specific outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution during the year

The faculty members regularly review program specific outcomes and course outcomes through interaction with students concerned. The feedback system of different stakeholders assists CSJMU to judge the attainment of the programme outcomes. The University has also employed student satisfaction survey system developed by NAAC. The student feedback system yields information regarding the applicability of the course, obtainability of the course material, its significance in the matter of employability etc., which are relevant in assisting the University appraise its learning outcomes. This is followed by a discussion with the teachers initially, and finally in the meetings of the Board of Study (BoS) in a particular subject/ respective department. The BoS consists of faculty members and external experts of prolific academic integrity from research institutes of repute and/or other universities. Policies are developed, implemented and supervised by the Head and other senior professors concerned. This is a continuous practice throughout the session. Students have been made to undergo a constant process of evaluation through tests, quizzes, written assignments, PPT presentation in online mode due to pandemic. The attainment of programme outcomes is assessed on the basis of the following components: (i) students' qualifying National and International Level Entrance/Competitive Exams, (ii) advancement towards higher studies, either in CSJMU or in any other higher educational institution of repute in India or abroad, and (iii) students' placement in government institutions, non-government agencies, corporate world, multi-national companies and academic industry.

RESEARCH, INNOVATIONS AND EXTENSION

3.1 - Promotion of Research and Facilities

3.1.1 - The institution Research facilities are frequently updated and there is well defined policy for promotion of research which is uploaded on the institutional website and implemented

The R&D cell took initiative in offering Ph.D. supervisor-ship to University as well as college faculties in UG and PG courses as well as self-financed teachers and contractual faculty members. All activities related to Ph.D. viva-voce, Ph.D. interviews, and RDC meetings are being conducted in an online mode. Ph.D. Entrance test was conducted in 49 subjects along with new supervisors approval. This will widen university new research dimensions and will also help us improve the publication profile, and improve our ranking in NAAC and NIRF. The R&D Cell has been implementing strict monitoring of Plagiarism, thus, VC Sir has not only initiated the purchase of Turnitin software for plag monitoring but University can now monitor plag check-in in 22 different Indian languages. Scopus software for linking data and research activity monitoring was recommended. A minor research scheme (CV RAMAN MINOR RESEARCH PROJECT SCHEME) was initiated with financial aid up to Rs.1.0lakhs for faculty members working on University Campus and affiliated colleges. The entrance examination was scheduled for 13th May 2022 for the upcoming batch. The University is also considering Ramanujan teaching assistantship up to Rs.10000/-PM for research scholars of the University campus.

5.4 - Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 - The Alumni Association/Chapters (registered and functional) contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and other support services during the year

CSJM University alumni are always a significant source of strength for the university. They not only bring pride and fame to their alma mater, but also contribute to its growth. We can encourage them to excel in various academic and life fields. As in the previous academic sessions, this session saw a growth in the contribution of funds. This funds were allocated for the development of the infrastructure and learning resources of the University. The university organized its alumni meet, which brought together many proud alumni having experience in a variety of sectors. Alumni have delivered talks and presentations in their fields of expertise. The University provided them a platform where they got a chance to engage themselves in philanthropic, academic, networking events, and other programmes. Several alumni meet had been organized by the university departments.

Several distinguished, respected, and worthwhile alumni expressed their gratitude to the university in the following ways:

Donating equipment for the health centre, prizes and sponsorship etc. in the past years. The alumni who had already secured a successful entrepreneurial position came forward to strengthen the base and ideas of the students interested in start-ups by suggesting useful ideas and providing guidance whenever they needed. Whenever needed, the alumni contributed their valuable suggestions in developing a relevant and standard syllabus and curriculum as a requirement in the contemporary world.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The institution has a clearly stated vision and mission which are reflected in its academic and administrative governance

Vision: To enlighten and empower humanity by nurturing future leaders and change agents for universal development and societal transformation

Mission: To work towards sustainable excellence in global standards of academia, technology-centric learning, robust research ecosystem, institutional distinctiveness, and harmonious social diversity

The University ensures distinction in teaching and enhancement of knowledge by creative amalgamation of human resources and technical know-how in teaching. Inter-disciplinary courses are made available to students so as to broaden their scope of learning. The students are provided opportunities to participate and excel in co-curricular activities. There is a focus on value-based education towards a holistic development of our students. The University provides a system of mentor-mentee program, inspired by the guru-shishya model of Vedic teaching. Aiming towards greater digitalization, there is a provision of online academic archive: Gyan Sanchay. There is a strong institute-industry tie-up through various MoU's. The University has a strong alumni network and a Placement Cell, which organizes Job Fairs, "Rozgaar Mela." The University has ensured fulfillment of its social responsibility by adoption of 100 TB patients, adoption of villages, promotion of gender parity, among others. The University also endeavors towards ecological sustainability through rain-water harvesting, plantation drives, and adequate waste management system.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe one best practice successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual

a-Title of the practice-

Online academic process with regard to admission, examination, evaluation, declaration of results, mark sheets and online generation of provisional and migration certificates.

b-Objectives of the practice-

The University uses Information Technology (IT) in a big way to computerize and automate student centric & college centric processes in a phased manner. Some processes run on remote web server and some on Campus Network. The use of ICT helps in managing the admission, the examination, the evaluation and the declaration of results.

c-Context

ICT has changed the methodology of approaching and communicating with the masses. ICT has enhanced efficiency. It has introduced a powerless mass communication system and has facilitated an exponential accessibility to knowledge resources.

d-Practice

CSJMU has developed various web based applications/modules for the benefit of its students, affiliated colleges and Staff.

e-Evidence of success

The successful impact of ICT is quite clear from timely completion of admissions, examinations and timely declaration of results. the online submission of examination forms and online provision of provisional/migration certificate and online submission of degree applications have drastically reduced the students rush.

f-Problems encountered and resources required

There is shortage of manpower skilled in the use of ICT.
